Talk to your child often about your family’s expectations and consequences of using marijuana and other substances.

More than 50% of Cape Cod youth who use marijuana believe that their parents don’t think it’s wrong.*

Students are 3 times more likely to use marijuana if they don’t hear strong messages of disapproval from their parents.

From one parent to another, if you don’t want your kids using marijuana, tell them.

*Based upon 30-day use data, Barnstable County SAPC Regional Strategic Plan, June 2016