

Prevention Course Series: at the 2017 New England School of Addiction and Prevention Studies!

June 5 – 8, 2017, Worcester State University, Worcester, MA

Prevention courses include:

- 491.M.T.W.Th Substance Abuse Prevention Skills Training (Monday morning through Thursday)
- 561.T Maine's Lessons Learning! Marijuana and Youth Prevention....An inclusive and interactive approach!
- 562.T Prevention Ethics
- 565.T Youth Substance Use Prevention: Exploring Evidence-Based Programming – LifeSkills Training – Level 1
- 563.T Community Organizing for Prevention and Recovery
- 564.T Advanced Coaching Skills for Recovery Coaches, Prevention Professionals and Community Leaders
- 663.W Advanced Prevention Ethics
- 665.W Harm Reduction Series: Overdose Education and Prevention – Understanding Opioids, Opioid Overdose Response, and Pharmacy Access to Naloxone
- 667.W Youth Substance Use Prevention: Exploring Evidence-Based Programming – LifeSkills Training – Level 2
- 668.W Investing in Prevention by Getting to the Root of the Problem: Advanced Prevention Training – Assessment and Capacity Building
- 663.W Anger Aside: Strategies for Adolescents and Young Adults
- 664.W The Art and Science of Facilitating Teams and Meetings
- 761.Th Teen Culture
- 762.Th Basic Facilitation Skills
- 763.Th Youth Substance Use Prevention Series: Exploring Evidence-Based Programming - Strengthening Families
- 764.Th Investing in Prevention by Getting to the Root of the Problem: Advanced Prevention Training – Planning & Evaluation

The Massachusetts Bureau of Substance Abuse Services offers a limited number of partial scholarships to support some of the attendance fee for those working in prevention in Massachusetts. Apply by May 15, 2017 at:

https://neias.site-ym.com/page/SS17_Schol_MA_Prev

Participants may select one or more courses from this prevention series, and they may also select from the other 70+ courses on substance use trends, ATOD education, and other topics offered.

Registration, complete Summer School program information, all course descriptions and online registration may be found under the “Summer School” menu links at:

<http://www.neias.org>

For further information: Contact NEIAS at 207-621-2549 or neias@neias.org.